Pola Rise, Fear

And I saw myself
Another useless soul
who sleepy now sleepy now
sleepy now
out of time

when I saw my face nothing you could log just waiting for waiting for
waiting for
deadly storm

how could I forger who I used to be?
chasing dreams
but now it’s no longer me

Feel all the light
Without fear all the dark
feel all of my scars
Without fear of the night
/2x

I was trying to was trying to move on but I’m still sneaky on sneaky on
out of life

I am half way through of nothing more to loose I’m slowly freaking out freaking out
.. inside

how could I forger who I used to be?
chasing dreams
but now it’s no longer me

Feel all the light
feel all of my scars
Without fear of the night
/2x

waiting is all I do
is all that holds me here I am standing by standing by standing by
wasted time when I realize
to sun would never rise

I’m going back
going back
going back
to the start

Feel all the light

feel all of my scars
