Kate Hudson, Talk About Love

I am looking at the city lights
Tryin' to get my head on right
And people walking by heads down
Miss everything in sight
Take my hand and let me
Guide you out into
The endless night (endless night)
But why
We chasin' all these butterflies
Let them go now

Tell me, baby
Nothing but the truth will do
Call me crazy
'Cause I know
It's our time me and you

And I'm talkin' 'bout love
Talkin' 'bout love
I'm talkin' 'bout love
I'm talkin' 'bout love, love, love

I am thinking about this world
And why we always
Tear each other apart
Time to put it all aside
Maybe have some fun
Don't you say
That you and I could
Never leave that world behind (behind)
So why (why, why, why)
We chasin' all these butterflies
Just let them go now

Tell me, baby
Nothing but the truth will do
Call me crazy (call me crazy)
'Cause I know
It's our time me and you

And I'm talkin' 'bout love
Talkin' 'bout love
I'm talkin' 'bout love, love, love
I'm talkin' 'bout love, love, love
(Talkin' 'bout love)

It's the love that we make
With no fear of heartbreak
C'mon break it, break it
Open your eyes
I'm standing in front of you baby
I'm no stranger
Tonight is the time when
We come alive, come on take it
We can make it
Yeah, yeah

Whoa I'm talkin' 'bout love
Oooh I'm talkin' 'bout love
Ah ooh ah ooh

Talkin' 'bout love
Ooh ah ah
