Katy Perry, Déjà vu

I live of the echoes of your I love you;s
But I still feel the blows from all your don’t want to’s
When you’re drunk
You say I;m the one
Then you wake up you suck my hope it in a vacuum

Cause every day’s the same
Definition of insane
I think we’re running on a loop
Daja vu
So tell me something new
I think we’re running on a loop
Déjà vu

Your words are Chinese water torture
And there’s no finish line
Always on emore corner
They slither like a centipede
Why do you keep me at the end of a rope
That keeps getting shorter?

Cause every day’s the same
Definition of insane
I think we’re running on a loop
Daja vu
So tell me something new
I think we’re running on a loop
Déjà vu

Cause every day’s the same
Definition of insane
I think we’re running on a loop
Daja vu
