Rhapsody Of Fire, Challenge the Wind

The son of vengeance is ready to fight
From darkness to light
The justice will strike down upon Bezrael
From heaven to hell
All of the murders shall soon be avenged
Those innocent souls
This raging fire igniting his pride
All hail to Kreel

Terial will fly through the shadows of the night
The diaphanous sentry, the hawk made of ice

Quingdar has cried in the river of tears
Thy tears filled the lake
The creature of God has adverted the fall
The bell has to toll
Let's play the bells for the heroes in white
From darkness to light
The power of magic will show us the light
We'll know black and white

The path will be lit by the rays of the stars
To reach out the secrets the Nephilim's holding
Back
Challenge the force of the wind
Destroy the curse, turn your doubts into fire
Challenge the force of the wind
Be yourself to brave the unknowns of time

The guardians of Celain are holding the spell
The spell of the graves
The magical circles will open the gates
To alter the past
Kreel will discover the mighty untold
The mighty untold
The alpha and the omega will become as one
All hail to Kreel

Unfold your destiny the future's unveiled
To reach out the secrets the Nephilim's holding

Challenge the force of the wind
Utter the spell to reclaim your empire
Challenge the force of the wind
Be yourself to brave the unknowns of time

He'll be the chosen one, heir of the lands
Surrounded by darkness he'll bright us the light
Thousands of warriors and souls has been sacrificed
Died to return in a whole brave new world

Challenge the force of the wind
Destroy the curse, turn your doubts into fire
Challenge the force of the wind
Be yourself to brave the unknowns of time

Challenge the force of the wind
Utter the spell to reclaim your empire
Challenge the force of the wind
Be yourself to brave the unknowns of time
