Keith Richards, Love Overdue

Listen darling
Who's gonna hold and squeeze me tight?
Now that she's gone out of my lisle
Who's gonna make me feel the way she used to do
Now that my love is overdue
Now that my love is overdue

I'm all alone in the wilderness
Searching to find some peace and rest
She wasn't the best girl
But she brought happiness into my world
And now I'm a prisoner of loneliness
And now I'm a prisoner of loneliness
Well I'm a prisoner of loneliness
That what I'm

Listen darling
Who's voice is gonna say goodnight
Now that she's gone out of my sight
Who's gonna tell lies and let me think the are true
Now that my love is overdue
Now that my love is overdue
Now that my love is overdue
I don't know just what to do honey, yeah
Stop it babe
