kenzie, HOT

should’ve listened to my friends they saw something I didn’t should’ve seen it but your kiss it broke my intuition

you look so good
but looks can be deceiving
you lie so well
I almost believe it

you think I’d stay for your face my heart was never that vain thought you’re worth my time and space used your beauty like it’s currency what ‘s inside is such a shame was it me or was it the game don’t know who you think you are to act so cold
just because you’re hot fights you started ended up whit me apologizing and you’ll tell everyone we broke up just because of timing

you lie so well
I almost believe it

don’t know who you think you are
to act so cold
just because you’re hot

I know I;m better off right here by myself save your smile for someone else
