Khalid, Stay

in the back of my life I know it’s hard on us but to tell you the truth there’s o more love, no more love it’s not easy to shake giving up and I;ve been losing count when the seconds turn to minutes into hours even working 9 to 5

she ws hard to find the time for me
are we gonna be alright
if I come through tonight baby can I stay a while it’s hard to say goodbye when I’m leaving let me indie

just to know I;m coming home for a reason /2x

all the shit that you say do you mean it?
wanna when you let me, do you believe in?
I can see it in your eyes you’ve had anough of it? and I’ve been missing out

even working 9 to 5
she ws hard to find the time for me
