Kiesza, All Of The Feelings

something don’t make sense that feeling that I get when you touch me body how do you know what I want like lightening creeping in electric on my skin maybe that’s how two becomes one

dace whit the devil up inside of my head telling me to run cuz you’re knocking me dead it’s true
yeah it’s true
all my emotion written over my face can’t run from you
you stop me dead in my place
you do
you do
you do
you do

I am getting all of the feelings back you make me believe in love again
believe in love again

telling me to run cuz you’re knocking me dead
it’s true
can’t run from you
you do
you do
you do
you do
