

Bebe Rexha, Sabotage

Why do i sabotage everything i love?
It's always beautiful until i fuck i up

Tell myself i am safe and lonely
With nobody else to break my heart
Even though i know you'd never
I am my own worst enemy and tink you are

Matches in my back pocket
I am the queen of burning Bridges
I will only let you down
Why do i sabotage everything i love?

It's always beautiful until i fuck i up
Why do i sabotage everything i love?
The walls are closing
In because i built them up

Why can't i let myself be happy?
Why do i gotta get in my own way?
My shoes are worn out always running
From the reason that i really wanna stay

Matches in my back pocket
I am the queen of burning Bridges
I will only let you down

Why do i sabotage everything i love?
It's always beautiful until i fuck i up
Why do i sabotage everything i love?
The walls are closing
In because i built them up

So don't let me hope too high
So don't let me hope too high
Cause i will find a way to tear it down every time
Don't let me hope too high
When everything is right
Cause i will find a way to tear it down every time

i sabotage everything i love
It's always beautiful until i fuck i up
Why do i sabotage everything i love?
It's always beautiful until i fuck i up

Why do i sabotage everything i love?
The walls are closing
In because i built them up
Why do i sabotage?
