LAUREL, Wild Things

Heavy breathing
I stay up with my feelings
They got me hooked ‘til sunrise
Chasing troubles
I’m dealing with my devil
She gets off when we fight

So I got high
All July
On a dream
And all my thoughts
Got lost
On the beach

So here we go again
Wild things, blazing
Lighting up the dark
Reckless, wasted
Rebels in the wind
Cool cats craving
The real thing

So here we go again
Wild things, blazing
Racing to the sun
Burn out, brazen
Everywhere we go, I’m still craving
The real thing
The real thing

Fallen angel
I got a call from God, he wants me to turn myself in Woke in darkness
I got so close to hell on the way back to heaven
And so I’m dry except the crying defeat
And all my friends try pretend that I’m free, I am

So here we go again
Wild things, blazing
Lighting up the dark
Reckless, wasted
Rebels in the wind
Cool cats craving
The real thing

So here we go again
Wild things, blazing
Racing to the sun
Burn out, brazen
Everywhere we go I’m still craving
The real thing
The real thing

I hit the ground
Been coming way down, down
I loved you, baby
Loved it way too loud
I chase the pain
Into an ocean wave
I loved you, baby
Don’t love me the same

So here we go again
Wild things, blazing

Lighting up the dark
Reckless, wasted
Rebels in the wind
Cool cats craving
The real thing

So here we go again
Wild things, blazing
Racing to the sun
Burn out brazen
Everywhere we go I’m still craving
The real thing
The real thing
