LCA, Curtain Falls (feat. Dayana)

I don't wanna stay I go
I just wanna let you know
The show must go on
Until the curtain falls

I'm building my future so easy like I'm building Lego
You wanna be a part of this, Welcome prego
Balling like Melo you can be my hater , enemy or my fella
Hello hello
What you see is what you get
You chose drive on the first or second speed
You choose go get your dream or get weed
Ladies and gentleman please take your seats
This is a story without deceit
You play the game or game play you
You change the game or game change you
You got one reason to leave and I got few
So don't tell me what a fuck I gotta do
I can't fall, I gotta go, gotta be strong
I know this road is too long
So that's why I take it
I gonna make it
And I know you gonna hate it

I don't wanna stay I go
I just wanna let you know
The show must go on
Until the curtain falls
It's time to break these walls
I hear how the crowd calls
The show must go on
Until the curtain falls
The show must go on
Until the curtain falls
The show must go on
Until the curtain falls

Only up only top homie
Go hard every day homie
You dont know me
Mr . Underrated , sometimes i feel that im frustrated
But I never give up that's why I made it
They want me cuz they want my money G
No friends no love no mercy
Catch a beat I'm on the grind truth in my rhyme
Gotta be ready for my time to shine
You play the game or game play you
You change the game or game change you
That's my moment yep I'm Rollin
These motherfuckers gotta know That I own it
So that's why I take it

The show must go on

The show must go on
The show must go on

I don't wanna stay I go
The show must go on

I don't wanna stay I go
The show must go on
It's time to break these walls
The show must go on
The show must go on
The show must go on
