Lena, Loyal To Myself

I know that I've tried this and tried that
I did it just to reach things that's so sad
I thought that you might like it like that
But nothing ever felt so bad

It pulled me apart and I went through
A mess in my heart to stay true
Now I, I found a friend to relate to
And I ain't ever gonna go back

I'm loyal to myself now
Wanna get to know me
A little bit better
Now that I'm the real me
Loyal to my myself now
'Cause I got potential
I've been doing better
Gotta be the real me
Loyal to my myself now
I've been doing better, yeah
Loyal to my myself now
I've been doing better, yeah

So I left myself to be loved
But I realized that I'm enough
Even if it's not a number one
At least I am where I belong

Goodbye to the doubts, I hate them
The fears and the expectations
I, I found a way to replace them
And I ain't ever gonna go back

I'm loyal to myself now
Wanna get to know me
A little bit better
Now that I'm the real me
Loyal to my myself now
'Cause I got potential
I've been doing better
Gotta be the real me
Loyal to my myself now
I've been doing better, yeah
I'm loyal to my myself now
I've been doing better, yeah

Loyal to my myself now
I'm loyal to my

I'm loyal to myself now
Wanna get to know me
A little bit better
Now that I'm the real me
Gotta be the real me
Loyal to my myself
I've been doing better, yeah
I'm loyal to my myself now
I've been doing better, yeah
Loyal to my myself
