Lena, Thank You

Decided to smile instead of hide away Surrounded by visions to keep me safe,
We all have knocks, and yes, I know it's tough, But why is it so hard just to show some love?

I chose to keep head up but I won't ever let it go your words, they drove me on nice reply
full of arrogance
thank you for knocking me down cause these scars have just made me stronger and your words, they don't matter now so thank you
thank you for knocking me down

thank you
no, I'm not gonna hate you now thank you for letting me down now that I know every low will make me grow
thank you for knocking me down

I am stronger now
I am wiser now
I am stronger now
I am stronger now
I am wiser now

cause these scars have just made me stronger
so thank you
thank you for knocking me down

thank you
I am stronger now
I am wiser now
I am stronger now
I am stronger now
I am wiser now
