The Weeknd, Secrets

Everybody here wants you my love, my love
And I know that you want them too my love, my love
I ask what your heart desires my love, my love
You tell me I’m the only one my love, my love

It’s a lie, a lie
I catch your every time in your lust, your lust
Every time you close your eyes

I hear the secrets thet you keep
When you’re talking in your sleep
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking
When you’re talking in your sleep
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking

You told me not to worry about
Those guys, those guys
You told me that you left it all behind, behind

It’s a lie, a lie
I catch your every time in your lust, your lust
Every time you close your eyes

I hear the secrets thet you keep
When you’re talking in your sleep
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking
When you’re talking in your sleep
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking

Wipe the
Lust from your eyes
I see that you’re not mine
I can see the lust in your eyes
You can’t hide it
You can’t be the one
I realize, we’re divided

I hear the secrets thet you keep
When you’re talking in your sleep
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking
When you’re talking in your sleep
I hear the secrets that you keep, keep, keep
When you’re talk, talking, talking
