Little Mix, Grown

[Perrie]
Hold up, wait, you used to be a frenemy
Back then boy, you didn't even notice me
Why now, you tryna to get a hold of me
We never ever spoke, so what makes you think you know me?

[Leigh Anne]
It's funny how the tables turn
I'm sittin' back baby watching you burn
No regrets, it's a lesson learned
Cos what you think ain’t my concern

[All]
About time that I let you know
My right and I assume control
You blew it baby years ago
Can't get with me, now I'm grown

Grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I'm grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I can hold my own
Boy, you missed the boat
Can't get with me, now I'm grown

[Jesy]
Your voice dropped, you thought that you can handle me
You played mean, but now you trying to holla me
You're washed up and now I'm in a different league
Your tryin' way too hard and I don't need your flattery

[Jade]
Now, it's funny how the tables turn
I'm sitting back baby watching you burn
No regrets it's a lesson learned
'Cause what you think ain’t my concern

[All]
About time that I let you know
My right and I assume control
You blew it baby years ago
Can't get with me, now I'm grown

Grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I'm grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I can hold my own
Boy, you missed the boat
Can't get with me, now I'm grown

[Jesy]
You didn't want me, it took too long
You didn't want me and now I'm grown
Oh what a shame baby, now I'm grown

[Perrie]
Hey!

[All]
Grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I'm grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I can hold my own
Boy, you missed the boat
Can't get with me, now I'm grown

Grown now, grown now

Don't you know that I'm grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I can hold my own
Boy, you missed the boat
Can't get with me, now I'm grown
