Little Mix, Towers

Leigh-Anne:
You turn, and I learn that the wall comes falling down
Not a word, only heard what my friends could tell me now
I feel love when I see your face
But all these scars, I can't replace
Shock me hard, hit me hard, and I don't know what you say

Perrie:
When you knock on my door
And tell me you don't wanna fight
Oh, baby I'm sure that I'm not gonna fall this time

Jesy:
You never brought me flowers
Never held me in my darkest hours
And you left it so late that my heart feels nothing nothing
And towers
Once we were made like towers
Everything could've been ours
But you left it too late now my heart feels nothing nothing at all

Jade:
It's a shame
You're to blame
'Cause once you owned my heart
I remember feeling so high
But I'm right back at the start
I still feel love when I see your face
But all these tears I can't erase
Sorry heart, I'm sorry heart
But we'll have to start again

Perrie:
So don't knock on my door and tell me you don't wanna fight
'Cause I heard it before
And I'm not gonna let this time
Not going back this time

Jade:
You never brought me flowers
Never held me in my darkest hours
And you left it so late that my heart feels nothing nothing
And towers
Once we were made like towers
Everything could've been ours
But you left it too late now my heart feels nothing nothing at all

Jade:
Nothing at all

Leigh-Anne:
When you're close I wanna change my mind
But I remember you and what we're like
I don't wanna let you waste my time

Jesy:
And you never brought me flowers
Never held me in my darkest hours
And you left it so late that my heart feels nothing nothing at all

Perrie:
Once we were made like towers
Everything could've been ours
But you left it too late now my heart feels nothing nothing at all

Little mix:
Nothing at all

Perrie:
Nothing at all

Jesy:
Once we were built like towers
Nothing at all
We were built like towers
Now my heart feels nothing at all
