LVMA BLACK (Magdalena Mielcarz), ICU

You look at me Like I’m not staring back It doesn’t even phase you so hard to get from here to you typical behavior

your signals ain’t adding up your watch me get real high can’t open up my eyes
why does it hurt me
your signals ain;t adding up
why do you feed me lies
a thousand times
and I take in a bit

my heart is barely beating
I see you
I hate myself whenever
I see you
so many blurry faces
I see you
but I can’t help myself when I see you

a bitter pill I wanna take it still damn, you’re so contagious they say time will heal so y watch the wheel but nothing ever changes

can’t open up my eyes
why does it hurt me
a thousand times
and I CAN’T TAKE IT

my heart is barely beating
I see you
I hate myself whenever
I see you
so many blurry faces
I see you
but I can’t help myself when I see you

my eyes are open
I keep on hoping that I’ll get sober
and walk a straight line again
my eyes are open
and walk a straight line

my heart is barely beating
I see you
I see you

so many blurry faces
I see you
I see you
