Maddie Poppe, Keep On Movin' On

Holding fire to polaroids of me and you, babe Lighting up these memories, and watching them turn to smoke
There ain't much left for me to say to you, babe Except so long, with no dear John for you when you get home

And I'll be gone by the morning
I'll be singing a brand new song
Sometimes, this life is a stormin'
So if the sun don't shine, you gotta pay no mind
With a keep on movin' on no, i ain;t gonna cry to desperado

I;ve hard those likes too many times to let them bring me down I've packed up all your records and my sorrow left them in a cardboard box with a duct tape lock on the other side of town

And I'll be gone by the morning
I'll be singing a brand new song
Sometimes, this life is a stormin'
So if the sun don't shine, you gotta pay no mind
With a keep on movin' on

sometime thisns don't work out like you planned them the lemonade you're sippin' turns yo lemon in your hand well, let this be your little leavin' anthem if the sun dn't shine you gotta pay no mound whit a keep on moving on

And I'll be gone by the morning
I'll be singing a brand new song
Sometimes, this life is a stormin'
So if the sun don't shine, you gotta pay no mind
With a keep on movin' on
