MAGIC!, Darts In The Dark

i don’t know the way back to the place where our love lies blindfolded, it feels and we’re trying to see out to the sunlight I used to love with my eyes close but now it seems that we just keep

so we just keep dancing around every day and we just keep playing the same guessing games and we both we’ll never go back to the start if we just keep throwing darts in the dark

darts in the dark
I don’t know the way back to your heart
I don’t know the way back to the dark

I remember you would just keep dancing too find you love cause lately, darling darkness is the moon between us
I used to love with my eyes close
but now it seems that we just keep

and we both

darts in the dark
