MAGIC!, No Regrets

The World isn't over yet
We've still got a chance to place our bets
We both made a little mess
Nothing our two hearts can't put back
I'll never love you less
Don't let your worries second guess
We'll start over fresh
Living a life with no regrets
Living a life with no regrets

I've got my issues - I admit that
You got some fears that hold you back
But we're acting like we're children
Looking to blame for what we lack

Before we lose everything we have tomorrow
Can we forget what went wrong yesterday?

Darling,
The World isn't over yet
We've still got a chance to place our bets
We both made a little mess
Nothing our two hearts can't put back
I'll never love you less
Don't let your worries second guess
We'll start over fresh,
Living a life with no regrets
Living a life with no regrets

I know you're driving yourself crazy
Thinking that time has passed you by You're not lost where you said you'd be
But tell me, who is in this lie?

Before we lose everything we have tomorrow
Can we forget what went wrong yesterday?
So, darling?

The world isn't over yet
We've still got a chance to place our bets
We both made a little mess
Nothing our two hearts can't put back
I'll never love you less
Don't let your worries second guess
We'll start over fresh,
Living a life with no regrets
Living a life with no regrets

The world isn't over yet
We can always start over
No weight on our shoulder
The world isn't over, darling
The world isn't over yet
We can always start over
No weight on our shoulder
Living a life with no regrets
Life with no regret
