Mans Zelmerlow, Hanging on to nothing

I've told you like a thousand times
I’m on the lost track
Calling you up at night
I think I fucked up
I see it's over now
That I can't hang among the skies
That we've been given
The path is now forbidden
You say that you are in
You are loving me
But I can't be tamed, impossibly
We try and we fall desperately
(It's like I am hanging on to nothing just for you babe)
Cause every time that you leave me I am loving it
Every time that I am set free I am hanging on to nothing
(Just for you babe
Just for you
Just for you babe, just for you)
I've told you like a million lies to keep you satisfied
Kisses for your appetite
To keep us far away from fighting
It's over now and I can't have the skies that we've been given
The path is now forbidden
You say that you are in
You are loving me but I can't be tamed, impossibly
And we try and we fall desperately
(It's like I am hanging on to nothing just for you baby)
Cause every time that you leave me I am loving it
Every time that I am set free I am hanging on to nothing
(Just for you babe
Just for you
Just for you babe
just for you)

It's over how we played
I can't seem to break free from these chains that were made, made just for me
I try and I fall, desperately

(It's like I am hanging on to nothing just for you baby)

Cause every time that you leave me I am loving it
Every time that I am set free I am hanging on to nothing
(Just for you babe
Just for you
Just for you babe
just for you)
