

Beyoncé, Black Parade

I am goin' back to the South
I am going' back, back, back,
Where my roots ain't watered down Growing, growin' like a Baobab tree
All fly , above the ground Ancestors put me on game
Ankh charm on gold chains
Whit my Oshun Energy
Drip all on me, woo
Ankh or Dashiki print
Hol' up , don't smell like such a nag champa incense?
Pure ice, ice, buss down

Flooded /2x
On my wrist, out
Going' up, going' up,
Motherland /2x
Drip on me
Melanin /2x
My drip is skin deep, like Motherland /4x
Drip on me
I can't forget my history is her-story Being black, maybe that's the reason why they always mad they always mad been past 'em
i know that's the reason wjy they all big mad and they always have been honey , come around my way , around my whenever momma says so, momma say here i come on my throne, sittin' high follow my parade, my parade talking slick to my folk lift at lip like lipo you hear tchem swarmin', right?

Bees is know to bite
Now here we come on our thrones Sittin' high
