

Big Red Machine, Renegade (feat. Taylor Swift)

I tapped on the window on your darkest night
The shape of you
Was jagged and weak
There was nowhere for me to stay
But I stayed anyway
And if I would've known
How many pieces you had crumbled into
I might have let them lay

Are you really gonna talk about timing
In Times like these
And let all your damage
Damage me
Carry your baggage up my street
And make me your future history
It's time
You've come a long way
Open the blinds
Let me see your face
You wouldn't be the first renegade
To need somebody

Is it insensitive for me to say
Get your shit together
So I can love you
Is it really your anxiety
That stops you from giving me everything
Or do you just not want to?

I tapped on the window on your darkest night
The shape of you
Was jagged and weak
There was nowhere for me to stay
But I stayed anyway

You fire off missiles cause
You hate yourself
But do you know you're demolishing me?
They you squeeze my hand
As I am about to leave

Are you really gonna talk about timing
In Times like these
Damage me
Carry your baggage up my street
And make me your future history
It's time
You've come a long way
Open the blinds
Let me see your face

Is it insensitive for me to say
So I can love you
That stops you from giving me everything
Or do you just not want to?

And if I would've known
How sharp the pieces were You'd crumbled into

I might've let tchem lay

Are you really gonna talk about timing
In Times like tehse
Damage me
Carry nypur baggage up my street
And make me your future history
It's time
Open the blindds
Let me see youe face

Is it insensitive for me to say
Get your sit together
So i can love you
That stops you from giving me everything
