Martin Garrix & Third Party, Lions In The Wild

Looking out for a new horizon
Reaching out I can almost see the place
Holding on with the heart that's frozen in the dark
But I am not afraid, no, I am not afraid!

We'll be free but I don't know where we're going
You and me this our life and we own it
Like lions in the wild /3x

Looking out at the open skyline
Reaching out, I can almost touch the place
Where the lost one's find their freedom in the dark
But I am not afraid, no, I am not afraid!

We'll be free but I don't know where we're going
You and me this our life and we own it
Like lions in the wild /3x
