Meghan Trainor, Mom (feat. Kelli Trainor)

You might have a mom
She might be the bomb
But ain’t nobody got mom like mine!
Her loves till the end
She’s my best friend
Ain’t nobody got mom like mine

She’s my world
She’s my heart and there’s no denying
I’m her girl matter what even when I’m lying
She loving me /4x
She love me like nobody else
I’m telling you /4x
She taught me how to love myself

You might have a mom
She might be the bomb
But ain’t nobody got mom like mine!
Her loves till the end
She’s my best friend
Ain’t nobody got mom like mine

See we go way back
I remember
All the times that I cried
She made me feel better
She loving me /4x
She love me like nobody else
I’m telling you /4x
She taught me how to love myself

You might have a mom
She might be the bomb
But ain’t nobody got mom like mine!
Her loves till the end
She’s my best friend
Ain’t nobody got mom like mine
How she loves me to the moon and back
That’s what she told me
Her love never ends
She’s my best friend
Ain’t nobody got mom like mine
