

Blackbear, my worst

this is the end,
this is the end,
this is the end of me playin' pretend that i'm available emotionally i'm off a benz, goin' around bends could be the death of me i'm not ready, i'm not ready Maybe i am the best mistake you ever made

It sounds so fucking beautiful
When you say my name
I am praying to a god
A god i don't believe
The more i hide my scars
The easier i bleed
But maybe i am the worst
The worst you ever had

Telk you
You're beautiful
Than stab you in the back
You're praying i a the one
But maybe i am na Curse

Teh more you try to fix me
Tehe more you make it worse
Could you love me at my worst?
Could you love me even though, that it hurts?
Could you love me
Could you love me at my worst?

Don;t try to call
Do not disturb
I do not want to speak
This is the end
