Michele Morrone, No One Cares

walking in the world
running so long
no one cares about your thoughts
all I want
is your tears to dry

I promise you
you be just fine
I will take you where stars corner all I want just take a breathe and look into your eyes

if you down
and don’t feel like fight
if you stumble
and don’t feel alone
just hold my hands so tightly
and I will be there
cause you’ll never be on your own

I know how hard can be this things I will throw up all stakes
..
I don’t wanna put on the breaks

fighting so long
all I can be it’s ....

all I want

and don’t feel like fight
