

Blake Shelton & Gwen Stefani, Go Ahead and Break My Heart

The Sun is setting on
Your last good try
Here I am, again with half a goodbye
Wonder if you're really gone this time
Just when I'm about to lose my mind
There you're again on my phone
The Moon was rising and you're all alone
Maybe we could just hang a while?
Maybe we can make each other smile?

No, here I go!

Why don't you go ahead and break my heart?
What are you waiting?
It is way too hard?
If moving on this is what you wanna do
Why don't you do it?
Why don't you do it, baby?
You can't tell me that we'll be friends
And maybe someday we can try again
If you really need a brand new start
Why don't you go ahead and break my heart?

I never meant to get so into you
Thought I was using you just to get me through
You know I'm broken I don't trust anyone
Last thing I needed was to fall in love
You got me dreaming got me thinking I got some hope
There's nobody and somebody to get know
But I'm so scared I don't know what to do
How did you get me so into you?

No, here I go!

Why don't you go ahead and break my heart?
What are you waiting?
It is way too hard?
If moving on this is what you wanna do
Why don't you do it?
Why don't you do it, baby?
You can't tell me that we'll be friends
And maybe someday we can try again
If you really need a brand new start
Why don't you go ahead and break my heart?
There's your reasons
There's your cards
What are you waiting?
Go on and break my heart
