Miley Cyrus, Inspired

I;m writing down my dreams
All I’d like to see
Starting with the bees
Or else day in the creek
There won’t be no stress
Or air for us to breath
I’ll still feeling mad
But then I feel inspired

Thinking about the days coming home with dirty feet
Or playing with my dad
All dey in the creek
He somehow has a way of knowing what to say
So when I;m feeling sad
He makes me feel inspired

We’re meant for more
Pull the handle on the door
Opens up to change
I know the sounds so strange
To think
We are meant for more
Pull the handle on the door
Opens up to change
I know the sounds so strange
Cuz you’ve always felt so small
But I know you aren’t at all
And I hope you feel inspired /2x

How can we escape
All the fear all the hate?
Is anyone watching us down here
Death is life, it’s not a curse
Reminds us of time and what it’s worth
To make the most out of it while we’re here

We’re meant for more
Pull the handle on the door
Opens up to change
I know the sounds so strange
Cuz you’ve always felt so small
To think
We are meant for more
There’s a lock upon the door
But we hold the key to change

How can we escape
All the fear, all the hate?
Is anyone watching us down here?
