

BLASK, Nobody

Nobody needs you more than I do!
Nobody hurt me telling the truth and I am empty space empty sound

empty smile

there's no other place you can go
you could hide and your bready heart cause a record in your mind still it's nothing new the another love your ..

through the window light and that like ... a dust someone else's life an illusion you could trust anymore to come fairy tells and waterfalls bubble soap my hope
... calm shake you the most

Nobody needs you more than you do!
Nobody say a word that there's was untruth
Nobody needs you more than you do!
Nobody hurt me telling the truth
