Mr. Probz, Space For Two

she set my 94’ four door on fire today So I took her favorite pair of diamond earnings and I pawned them away that’s when she walked in the kitchen ffull of dishes and she broke every plate se might be the death of me but I wouldn’t have it any other way

she might be my cocaine
she might be my rehab
and I’aint tryna OD
But she’s going to make me relapse

But if crazy is a place, then I hope they’ve got space for two and I know it’s messed up but u can’t get enough of you I don’t matter what we say
I don’t matter all the things we do
But if crazy is a place, then I hope they’ve got space for two
But if crazy is a place, then I hope they’ve got space for two

She called my boss and he told him I ain’t coming in to work no more so I changed every look on every door before she got home if I would get a dime every time she wants to get through my phone she might be the death of me but u could never leave her alone

she might be my cocaine
she might be my rehab
and I’aint tryna OD
But she’s going to make me relapse

and I know it’s messed up but u can’t get enough of you
I don’t matter what we say
I don’t matter all the things we do
But if crazy is a place, then I hope they’ve got space for two
But if crazy is a place, then I hope they’ve got space for two

she might be my cocaine
she might be my rehab
But I don’t care what’s anybody’s saying she’s the pain and my medicine the problem and my solution but she knows I wouldn’t have it another way

But if crazy is a place, then I hope they’ve got space for two
and I know it’s messed up but u can’t get enough of you
I don’t matter what we say
I don’t matter all the things we do
But if crazy is a place, then I hope they’ve got space for two
But if crazy is a place, then I hope they’ve got space for two
