Rich The Kid, Tell Me

Tell me you love me, baby
Ooh, that's the sweetest sound
Tell me how much you need me
Make my world go 'round
Ain't no competition
No one can compare
Baby, I got this feeling
And I don't wanna share

We don't need permission, baby
We can just be free
Baby, I love it when you touch me
Baby, I love it when you hold me
Baby, I love it when you love it
Baby, I love it, I love it, yeah

Just want you to hold me and never leave my side
Just hold me, baby, and tell me everything will be alright
Just want you to show me your love is always right
Just hold me, baby, and tell me everything will be alright

When she try to run, I bring her close
She say, "Big 3, you do the most"
I like when I be gone and then come home
That's when it's super soaked
It's cold, I let her wear my coat
Backwoods, I let her roll my smoke
What we do, we let nobody know
Yeah, that's my lil' boo on the low
I put her in a baby Benz, nah, she can't ride a Honda Accord
Her friends be like, "Damn, girl, you spoiled"
Chanel bag, no Michael Kors
Kept you around while I got rich
'Cause you stayed down while I was poor
Them crackers had me pinned
They tried to nail a nigga to the floor
I beat that lil' cat from the back
She say she can't take all of that (Come here)
I gave lil' ma a half a Perc'
And now she tryna throw it back
Big 3, nah, I don't like to cap
Man, you know all I spit is facts (For real)
Then I went to the Gucci bag and I showed her a hundred racks
I know that blue lil' shawty mine
She like how I been on my grind
Been coppin' hella ice
Hoping hopefully I can freeze the time
I give you what you want
Even though I know you don't need a dime
Fresh out that pussy to a flight
I think of you while a nigga flyin'

Just want you to hold me and never leave my side
Just hold me, baby, and tell me everything will be alright
Just want you to show me your love is always right
Just hold me, baby, and tell me everything will be alright

I get jealous and I worry
Only because I love you
You're the thing that keeps me going
When the skies are blue
Baby, I know I'm not perfect
But the love I have is true (Ooh)
Baby, I love you, yeah

And we don't need permission, baby
We can just be free (We can just be free)
Baby, I love it when you touch me
Baby, I love it when you hold me
Baby, I love it when you love it
Baby, I love it, I love it, yeah

Just want you to hold me and never leave my side
Just hold me, baby, and tell me everything will be alright
Just want you to show me your love is always right
Just hold me, baby, and tell me everything will be alright

Everything will be alright
Yeah
