Roxen, Amnesia (Rumunia, Eurovizja 2021)

once upon a time i used to know a girl Ripped jeans
Messy hair
Shining like a pearl
I guess u am a day sick I push the night so far away

If you feel what i feel See what i see
Don’t bring yourself down
You’re not alone
Not alone now

i lost myself tryna have it all this world view’s in a rush and they say tehy know it all
self love amnesia
don’t worry if it got you cause you’re not alone, not alone i try to fight
but it’s getting strong getting strong, getting strong

giving all they want mmight make you lose control take it breathe in the words like i shpuld know people always say be carful what you wishin’ for!

If you feel what i feel
See what i see
Don’t bring yourself down

self love is never gone self love put it back on self love self love
not alone, not, alone
