Sabrina Carpenter, Honeymoon Fades

I hope we stay the same, hey honeymoon unexpected, this thing we well into lie, so connected you came at a time when my heart was selective didn’t have to choose my love was accepted

now we’re running out of luck one on one you were sent to me like a one to one and now we’re going I just want no one nobody else

I hope we never change
I hope we stay the same I hope that we can love through the pain
after the honeymoon fades
I hope we never change
I hope we stay the same

now remember when we met we were all in each other’s bed we were spending every second we had and now that it’s official it ended a little different ho we’re gonna deal whit these bads, no

I hope we never change
I hope we never change

and I hope it taste the same even if it’s the best way
