Sam Fischer, You Don't Call Me Anymore

I can still hear your laugh in the back of the cab, we were drunk, it's been ages
Pick a fight with the driver, you're kind of a dick like that
Another one for the books and the punches were good, we were adding the pages
Drove away to the time and the place that I can't get back

And I didn't know
I was watching you go

And you never said it
But you moved on without moving at all
You just don't call me anymore
And nothing happened
Can't even say there's something to ignore
You just don't call me anymore

I can still send the texts, and I mean, you don't check, but I do out of habit
Top spot, you're my favourite call, tough love, we don't talk at all

I didn't know
I was watching you go

And you never said it
But you moved on without moving at all
You just don't call me anymore
And nothing happened (Nothing happened)
Can't even say there's something to ignore (Oh, no)
You just don't call me anymore
You don't call (You don't call)
You don't call me anymore (You don't call me)
You don't call
You don't call me anymore

You don't call my number
I've been wondering where you are
'Cause I miss your voice, it's a mystery that

You never said it (You never said it)
But you moved on without moving at all (Oh-ooh, at all)
You just don't call me anymore (Don't call me)
And nothing happened (Nothing happened)
Can't even say there's something to ignore (Oh, no, yeah)
You just don't call me anymore (Don't call)
You don't call
You don't call me anymore
You don't call
You don't call me anymore
You don't call
You don't call me anymore
You don't call
You don't call me anymore
