

Burak Yeter, Crash

there's a fever
I can't leave you standing there honest, I swear, how could I walk you anywhere?
come home with me till your feeling sober you choice completely you take the bed and I'll take the sofa

crash /3x
you can rash at mine tonight I'll let you decide, you can
crash /3x
you can
crash at mine
it's fine if you decline
but you can
crash at mine

last night
long drive
god knows how we both survive bright lights outside
on a riun left behind
first impression
you mention not to knock your part
an exception
I don't do this all the time

there's no pressure
easy with whatever
don't wanna eave you cold
there's no agenda
only shelter from the night
let's get inside
