TEO, Wake Up (piosenka z 'Mam talent')

How many beats are you beating?
So many things on your mind
Do you ever feel for someone else

How many pills in your system?
How many pills till you're fine?
Does it ever make you feel alright?

So you break your bones
Don't breathe at all
No one’s there to help

I don’t wanna see your life
Turn into pain for someone else
So don’t go blind
Go fight
‘Cause every mother loves her child
So you wake up in the morning

Heard you were high on a feeling
Bigger and stronger than life
Is there any way to bring you down?

How do you sleep if you’re sleeping?
How many times have you tried
Will you ever gonna be alright?

So you break your bones
Don't breathe at all
No one’s there to help

I don’t wanna see your life
Turn into pain for someone else
So don’t go blind
Go fight
‘Cause every mother loves here child
So you wake up in the morning

Oh you gotta wake up
Oh you gotta wake up now
Oh you gotta wake up
Oh you gotta wake up now
