The Black Keys, Lo/Hi

Out on a limb
In the wind of a hurricane Down at the bar
Like a star in the howlin' rain

Nobody to love you
Nobody to care
If you got nobody to hug you No one to answer your prayer you get low, like a valley then high, like a bird in the sky you get low, cause you’re angry

low, high, high, low

one at a time get in line for ythe masquerade drink till you cry and you’re lying in the mess you made

low, high, high, low
