The Chainsmokers, Push My Luck

broad street
yeah we met overt sake might have started off rocky and round our first date but last night when you finally called me I ran straight thru the lobby I couldn’t keep you waiting and I know /4x

that you like your space whit your one roommate do you mind if I see you tomorrow?

yeh i know /4x that you work Sundays from minimum wage should I have known that you would take hold and never let go? /2x

I think I might push my lusk whit you does another night feel alright to you? if I ask right now would you think it through
