The Gems, Queens

What does it take to be the one that everybody knows
How does it feel to walk on these old dusty roads

Oh
Here's to all of my

Queens, stick together
Queens, always and forever
Queens, we salute
The warriors that paved the way for us
Queens, go get your treasure
Queens, no guilt in pleasure
Queens, we salute
The warriors that paved the way for us

We've seen the struggle and respect the strength you shown
Thanks to your courage - a new generation on the throne

Oh
Here's to all of my

Queens, stick together
Queens, always and forever
Queens, we salute
The warriors that paved the way for us
Queens, go get your treasure
Queens, no guilt in pleasure
Queens, we salute
The warriors that paved the way for us

A queen is the creator, destroyer and savior
The greater desire, a ferocious roar!
A queen is a warrior, not afraid to fail
Who turns pain into power, reign and devour

A queen is a giver, loyal and faithful
Forgiving our deeds and sins with grace
A queen is a champion of love and understanding
Whose pressure makes diamonds, bright and sublime

Oh
Here's to all of my

Queens, stick together
Queens, always and forever
Queens, we salute
The warriors that paved the way for us
Queens, go get your treasure
Queens, no guilt in pleasure
Queens, we salute
The warriors that paved the way for us
