The Nolans, Gotta pull myself together

Now that I know why did I doubt you
I let you go, now I without you
Thought I was Cool, imagination
I was the fool, fell to temtation

But you won see me cry
'Cause it no good
Since you said good-buy and now

Honey, I gotta stop, gotta stop pickin?up
Gotta pull myself together
Honey, I breaking up,
Now that we ain makin?up
Just gotta pull myself together

I was so sure it wouldn upset me
I close the door, why did you let me
I lose control, out of sensation
I in the cold, sad situation

I try hard not to say
It hurt so bad since you went away

Honey, I gotta stop, gotta stop pickin?up
Gotta pull myself together
Honey, I breaking up,
Now that we ain makin?up
Just gotta pull myself together

Baby, I want you, baby, I need you

But you won see me cry
'Cause it no good
Since you said good-buy and now

Honey, I gotta stop, gotta stop pickin?up
Gotta pull myself together
Honey, I breaking up,
Now that we ain makin?up
Just gotta pull myself together
