THE ROOP, Simple Joy (Litwa - piosenka na Eur

If the world is over
And I have no more time for chasing dreams.
By looking at it closer,
I see that I am rich in little things.

Like the smell of coffee,
The feeling of sunlight on my face,
The calming voice of mother,
A morning with my lover.

Even in the darkest hours
Love will bloom.

All my life
I've been thinking I need something more.
Now I'm fine,
I'm enough with my own simple joy.

I let myself dance and dance and dance,
I am good with my imperfect life.
My biggest treasure is my friends.
I thank a stranger giving me a smile.

Even in the darkest hours
Love will bloom.

All my life
I've been thinking I need something more.
Now I'm fine,
I'm enough with my own simple joy.

News is spinning my head round,
I can barely feel the ground.
Is the world losing its mind?

Wonder what tomorrow brings?
Simple joy in little things,
Leaving all my worries behind.

All my life
I've been thinking I need something more.
Now I'm fine,
I'm enough with my own simple joy.

Yeah! I said
All my life
I've been thinking I need something more, more, more, more!
Now I'm fine,
I'm enough with my own simple joy.
Simple joy, yeah yeah yeah.
