Tove Lo, Sweettalk my Heart

tell me you love me tell me you're mine
tell me you know it don't need a sign but I feel different, know you don't lie but I want attention, commitment intertwined

what are your dreams?
give me the details, all in between just let me know ya
we can go far
don't tell ja shoulder
get colder
keep me warm

sweeter than love is the taste of all those promises that pulls you in for good can't get enough
put your top mover on and run whit this sweet talk that shit, so good I can be yours
I can be yours now
I can be yours
I can be yours now
I can't get enough
sweet talk like shit, so good tell me forever, how can you know it doesn't matter, see es we go heppe is protection, saving us both got good intention and passion don't wanna deal with all sad stuff keeping it real playing pretending when it gets rough don't want us rending we're mending , shake this off

I can be yours
I can be yours now
I can be yours
I can be yours now
