YUNGBLUD, casual sabotage

hiding here in camouflage when they said that they want me you love me, you need me call it casual sabotage you think that it’s easy

I am tryna get to sleep whit the lights on cause I am confused and I am frightened I’m tryna get to sleep whit the lights on I don’t understand this on my own

I am just a messed up kid whit sewn up lips
I can’t take this shit
I need to exist
