Zara Larsson, Right Here

I could have two girls in this bed
Wouldn't even get your attention
I could have powders as my best friend
Wouldn’t even get your attention
And i could be naked at dinner
And touching the waiter
The baddest behaviour
I could have two girls in this bed
Wouldn’t even get your attention

And you got me thinking
Why
Do i even try
Why, why
Why
I don;t understand who are you with
Is it me or the light in your hands

I am right here
Why can’t you look at me
You keep your eyes on the screen
Like you don’t care
That i am right here
I am wearing that perfume
That you got me in June
Do you not smell it in the air?
I am right here
