Zara Larsson, What They Say

Breaking up
it can feel like I don’t know but I do
And all I want is something
Like seeing you smile
Yes, I do
But you don’t have to be here anymore
So watcha gonna do?
Just go and call it off
But what if I try another way
Just take a little advice form me

Whatever you do
Just don’t believe what they say
Whatever you do
Just don’t believe what they say
Cause they don’t believe you
Like I believe in you
Anyway
Whatever you do
Just don’t believe what they say

Never lie
I’d go to the edge of the line
Every time for you
Just what you need
And I know that it’s golden
Just take what you want
And leave what you don’t
Let the world sink in and stick to your bones

Cause you don’t have to be here anymore
I’m holding on to you
So you’re not falling off
So what if I try another day
Just take a little advice from me

Whatever you do
Just don’t believe what they say
Whatever you do
Just don’t believe what they say
Cause they don’t believe you
Like I believe in you
Anyway
Whatever you do
Just don’t believe what they say
