Zayn Malik, Stand Still

skies of blue and birds of yellow flowers growing just to bloom a million chances of our glances caching eyes across the room

if time stands still
move I will to you
this world’s filled
somehow I see you
move I will to you

rain could pour upon your face now and yet your beauty would still shine I would live a thousand lifetimes if it’s you I’m sent to find

if time stands still
move I will to you
this world’s filled
somehow I see you
move I will to you

move all the water, babe
lift the rocks up
tide getting stuck
nothing can stop us
move all the water, babe
lift the rocks up
tide getting stuck

move I will to you
somehow I see you
move I will to you
