

CL, No Lover Like Me

Remember the last time you called me Chae Lin Can't remember the last time you called me that name You always said that I would be the main thing
And now you gonna switch lanes

Caught you out there honey you
So, so funny
You come back running, running
Yes, you miss my love
and you miss my money
Let me tell you something, something

I just got to let you know
If you're gonna let me go
you will never find another lover like me
No Lover Like Me

lover like me, lover like me
NO lover like me!
(No Lover Like Me
No Lover Like Me)
you will never ever
find a lover
lover like me, lover like me
lover like me, lover like me
you will never ever
find a lover

Now you got some time riding solo Trying to get me back on a low low Baby, let me tell you it's a no no
I think that you should go home
Caught you out there honey you

Caught you out there honey you
So, so funny
You come back running, running
Yes, you miss my love
and you miss my money

I just got to let you know
you will never find
another lover like me

lover like me, lover like me
NO lover like me!
(No Lover Like Me
No Lover Like Me)
you will never ever
find a lover
you will never ever
find a lover
