Clean Bandit, Tears (ft. Louisa Johnson)

I tried hard to make you want me But we're not supposed to be And the truth will always haunt me Even though it set me free And my tears flow like the ocean As they floated in the breeze They're falling in slow motion And they brought me to my knees

You'rre haunting me
Taunting me all in my brain
Tour off the light and now all that remains
Fills me with doubt
And I'm shouting your name out loud
Why do you wanna put me through the pain?
I get trhe feeling I'll never escape
I can't hide away from the shame if you

Tears on the ground
Tears on my pillow
You won't bring me down
And I'll get over you
These tears will get me through
And I'll get over you /5x

When did you lose your emotions?
When did you become so cruel?
And if you want to cut me open
Says a 1000 words about you
And in time I know you'll leave me like a distant memory
I knowe love can be so easy
If I start by loving me

You'rre haunting me
Taunting me all in my brain
Tour off the light and now all that remains
Fills me with doubt
And I'm shouting your name out loud
Why do you wanna put me through the pain?
I get trhe feeling I'll never escape
I can't hide away from the shame if you

Tears on the ground
Tears on my pillow
You won't bring me down
And I'll get over you
These tears will get me through
And I'll get over you /5x
