Danny Avila, The Vamps, Too Good to Be True (f

The way that you move you take me to heaven
The things that you do You got me confessing you fell from the sky
My type of perfection is this real life there's something about you

you're way too good to be true
you're way too good to be true
you're way too good to be true
you're way too good to be true

No, baby don't lie
When you say that you'll be mine
I can't look in your eyes
Cuz I fall a 1000 times
And all I know is you to testify
So baby don't lie
When you say that you'll be mine

you're way too good to be true
you're way too good to be true

I don't go to church so be my religion I'm hung on your words give me something to believe in

you're way too good to be true
you're way too good to be true
you're way too good to be true
you're way too good to be true

No, baby don't lie
When you say that you'll be mine
I can't look in your eyes
Cuz I fall a 1000 times
And all I know is you to testify
So baby don't lie

you're way too good to be true
